FUNERAL LARGELY ATTENDED

A large company of citizens attended the funeral of the late Andrew Jackson McDougle, in the Christian Church Friday afternoon. It was in the year 1870, on April eighth that the deceased transferred his church membership to the local Christian Church, though he was identified with church life before that from the time of his birth. For forty years he acted as elder and was held in high esteem as the senior elder at the time of his death. It was befitting the fourteen men who acted as regular and honorary pallbearers should be chosen from his fellow officers in the church.

After an appropriate and deserving eulogy had been delivered by the pastor of the church the body was laid quietly to rest in the family lot in the Maysville Cemetery.

WILL PLAY AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Mr. Robert Straus, the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Straus of this city, will render a violin solo at the First Baptist Church Sunday night. This is the service to which the members of the Chamber of Commerce are asked to attend.

NO BASKETBALL GAME

There was no basketball game at the High School as announced in yesterday's Ledger. There was some mistake in the schedule as given to us. The game with Carlisle will be played later.

President Cochran of the Chamber of Commerce requests all members, who can possibly do so, to attend the service at the First Baptist Church Sunday evening.

The meeting at Stewart's Chapel is being attended with a good interest and a good spirit shown by the people. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the services.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harting have moved from the Gallenstein Plaza on West Third street to the Omar Dodson property opposite the Episcopal Church.

MAYSLICK OUTDID ITSELF THURSDAY

New Record Set in Attendance and Interest at the Annual Thanksgiving Bazaar.

The annual Thanksgiving Bazaar at the Mayslick Consolidated School yesterday was attended by its usual success in every department. Indeed, in many respects, former records were broken. Tables were set for dinner in one more room than usual thereby increasing the number that could be fed at one sitting by fifty two. About 600 people ate their Thanksgiving dinner at the school building. If there was any difference, the dinner was more bountiful than on former occasions. Turkey and dressing, ham, oysters, cranberries, chicken and fruit salads, celery, pickles, pies, ice cream and cake, coffee and beaten biscuits were served in generous portions. People came from miles around, Flemingsburg, Mt. Olivet, Minerva and Maysville. Maysville was more largely represented than usual.

The fancy work in the bazaar room was of splendid quality and beauty. Prizes were given in this department for the best pieces. Florence Bannan won first and Mary Hall Nesbitt, second in the prizes offered to students. Prizes offered in the produce room were taken as follows: First, one quart of sweet corn, second, Edward Nesbitt, first on potatoes, Eugene Pyles. A fine display of produce was shown in this department.

In the auditorium the papers shown by this school at the Maysville Corn and Tobacco Fair were on display. Also, the Edison phonograph given by J. T. Kackley & Co. in connection with the fair and won by the school was in operation most of the day entertaining those who came that way.

Two basket ball games were played with the Minerva school teams. Mayslick took both of them by comfortable scores.

At three o'clock an operetta entitled, "The Quest of the Pink Parasol," was given in the auditorium under the direction of Miss Forman and Miss Donovan. This was a very pretty representation of a fairy garden with popples and fairies, the Fairy Queen and the Gardner. Colored lights were used to represent twilight dawn and mid-night. The operetta was followed by a beautiful dumbbell drill by Miss Freeman's class in physical culture.

The evening program was a play, "The College Town," given by the High School students under the direction of Miss Lewis and Mr. Dix. This was pronounced to be one of the finest plays yet given at Mayslick. The college spirit was greatly in evidence. Specialties by Pearce West, Susie Clarke, Roemele Thompson and Billy Martin were reported repeatedly.

Receipts for this is written amount to $411.41. This will be augmented by several dollars when all settlements are made. It may well be believed that the high tide of enthusiasm and achievement has not even yet been reached in this community work at Mayslick.

THERE'LL BE A NUMBER OF "ALSO RANS"

Announcements are now coming fast in Mayslick county for the Democratic primary for county offices next August. The following announcements have already been made: For Representative, S. L. McGowan; for county judge, Charles M. Lee; for sheriff, J. Frazee Hart and Sen. T. Walton; for assessor, John M. Glenn and H. L. Whaley; for jailor, O. D. "Pie" Williams; for coroner, R. S. Pepper; Sam B. Planck, H. S. Payne.

CARS RUNNING THROUGH

The street cars began running the entire system of track yesterday morning about 9 o'clock. This is the first time the cars have used the main track for its entire length since the first of July during Chautauqua. All of the work that remains to be done on the street is a short bit of concreting in the Sixth Ward and the pouring of the asphalt. All of the brick street work has been entirely completed.

MEETING POSTPONED UNTIL WEDNESDAY

The meeting of the Chamber of Commerce in the Council Chamber last evening was postponed on account of failure of the member to attend. The meeting was for the purpose of discussing the last tobacco fair and making some plans for the next one. The meeting will be held on next Wednesday night, without fail.

BIG DAY MONDAY

Monday promises to be a big day in this city. County Court day, the opening of the December term of Circuit Court, Grand Jury session, City Council and the Lecture by George E. Colby at the High School will be the attractions. All of them are very interesting and it is expected that the meeting of the City Dads will lead all in interest.

WOMAN ACTED STRANGELY

(Cincinnati Times-Star.) A woman who gave her name as Lena Eggleston of Lewisburg, Ky., was found acting strangely on West Fifth street Thursday. She was taken to the police place of detention, where her actions caused the matron to have her taken to the general hospital. At the hospital it was said that she was suffering from nervousness.

INFANT DIES

The three weeks old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones of Carmel street was buried this morning at 10 o'clock in the Maysville Cemetery.

MABEL TRUNELLE

And Conway Tearle in "The Heart of the Hills" is the special feature attraction at the Pastime Monday.

PRETTY WEDDING

The following is the account of the Shanklin-Caldwell wedding in Millersburg, Ky., last week, taken from the Millersburg News in the Bourbon News. Mr. Caldwell is a nephew of Mrs. Alice Best of this city.

One of the prettiest weddings witnessed here in a long time was that on Thursday at 5 p. m., when Miss Mary McAllister Shanklin became the bride of Mr. Frank C. Caldwell. The wedding took place at the Presbyterian Church. The building was darkened and softly illuminated with electric lights, while the organ and the front of the church was banked with cut flowers and evergreens, which were illuminated by wax tapers. Miss Lucile Dalley presided at the organ, and Miss Alta Ball sang several selections while the audience was gathering. The bride and groom were followed by the bride's maid of honor, her sister, Miss Virginia Shanklin, and the groom with his best man, Mr. J. Hord Barnes. They were met at the altar by the officiating minister, Rev. A. S. Vesable. The bride was handsomely attired in white satin, with an elaborate train trimmed in silver lace, while Miss Shanklin was attired in pink satin. The ring ceremony was used.

Shortly after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell left for a short trip East, and will be at home to their friends at his home in the Butler Addition after December 8th. Miss Shanklin is one of our most popular and prominent young ladies, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Shanklin. She is a graduate of the M. F. C., prominent member of the Presbyterian church, a member of all of its societies and of several young ladies' clubs. She is well known throughout Central and Northern Kentucky, having many influential friends and relatives. Mr. Caldwell, the second son of Mrs. Bessie G. Caldwell, his father, Mr. J. P. Caldwell, having died about a year ago.

McClanahan. Treasurer—William H. Cox. Messenger—James Clifford. Chairman Standing Committee—M. J. McCarthy.

OUR COLORED CITIZENS

Thanksgiving services were well attended at Scott M. E. Church, Rev. E. W. S. Hammond the pastor, preached the sermon and there were many expressions of thankfulness with demonstrations of praise to the giver of all good.

The Teacher Training and Bible Study Class in charge of Rev. Hammond, the pastor of Scott M. E. Church on Friday evenings, beginning at 6:30 and holding one hour. All who desire to join the class are invited to enroll at once so as to get the full benefit of the studies. Meetings at the church.

The Church Improvement League in charge of Circle No. 1 composed of Mesdames A. G. Hammond, G. Lockridge, Emma Taylor, Nannie Lightfoot, Martha Washington and Belle Humphrey served most excellent supper at night. A large crowd was in attendance and greatly enjoyed the splendid program of the Epworth League. The songs and other exercises were of a high order.
